 KIN Play

The KIN Play requires no additional amplification. Simply pair it with the world's most popular sources and mobile devices and start enjoying your music.

Equipped with Bluetooth and aptx HD for wireless streaming. The KIN Play can be easily placed in room. The analog and digital inputs allow a variety of sources to be connected: turntables to gaming consoles.

Totem recognizes the challenge that certain sources and recordings create and this is why we have equipped the new KIN Play with both bass and treble controls, easily accessible from the remote control, allowing the listener to customize his/her sound.

The reset option ensures original settings are easily restored.
